THEMED DRESSING

We were very amazed by all the nice outfits yesterday! It was a great homage to the deco team. It turns out that the deco team was inspired to decorate themselves as well. It is to be expected they stood out in efforts, originality and elegance. No one can beat the deco team, so they win the themed dress contest!

RUMOURS AND QUOTES

- ...At the school they installed a hopscotch course for people who forget to check in or out, if you don't finish you won't get back in...

SILENT DISCO

The not so silent disco had a great variety of music. Wouko wondered what type of music is the most popular. It seems like people just liked the random part of the music during the Silent Disco!
