

CaDansa

Balfolk Festival

OCTOBER 2016

DAILY

AFTER EDITION

T-SHIRTS

Because of the five year anniversary of CaDansa we made it possible to back order t-shirts. You can still order shirts from previous years. This is a one time promotion, so take your chance to make your collection complete!

From Tuesday on it will be possible to buy your missing shirts here. We will remind you via Facebook!

CADANSA TEAM

Every year a team of people work throughout the year to make Cadansa the beautiful festival it is. This year Louise had help from Selena, Barbara, Niels and Anne. Some will leave the team because of other obligations. So new Cadansa lovers are needed to enforce the team!

SLEEPING IN THE SCHOOL

It was nice to have a bigger primary school to sleep in. There was a nice place to sit and have breakfast. We discovered that folkies often take a shower. We have to order more gas. for warm water next

GOTCHA

There were lots of people who have gotcha'ed one or two people. We hope that this little game made you meet new people and have hilarious situations. Rafael was lonely on the top. He has collected seventeen gotcha cards. The price was a date with the bearded lady and it became very hot!

RUMOURS

...Steef seems to have triggered a pavlov effect, people showed him his bracelet not only at the entrance, but inside the OGtent and in the school as well.

...Sometimes wishes seem to be interpreted in different ways. Selena ended up with a red rose and a red nose...

...the cup tower got higher and higher, did you see the hilarious video on Facebook of Louise making a tower collapse?

... Roos on Facebook: Of all the superb tunes I heard these days the one I woke up with this morning is: Doe de muts na!

... Ilya and Wouko already started planning for next year. Same slots and what to play!

WHAT A MESS

It was quite some work to clean up all the mess. The plan is to make a new volunteer team next year for Thursday and Monday.

THE END...

A final bourree en ronde made a spectacular end of Cadansa. The staged was filled with musicians, the dancefloor filled with dancers and the air filled with energy. We will see you next year!
