RUMOURS

- That's strange, suddenly there are people who are going to sleep at your old school... two women from Duiven thought that it must be asylum seekers, the foreign number plates confirmed their suspicions... (but now they know why)
- Someone met a really nice Parisienne... and practices French... "Vous êtes une Parisienne, je viens d'Utrecht. Bien que nos bouches parlent une langue différente, vous souriez mon coeur..."
- People saying good morning after twelve... that's festival morning!
- The shirts are very popular, be quick when you want one! :) And don't forget to get a cup as souvenir as well! Or get all of them to start a fun fair act...
- Some people really feel at home at the Van der Valk hotel (for example Maal & Arne) but be careful not to feel too homy... arriving without shoes at the breakfast means going back to your room to get a pair >_< ... (it is allowed to come in pyjamas)
- We spotted someone with ALL(!) the festival bracelets... High six to this person! (although his/her arm may be heavy)
- Some of you missed the surprise blind date last year... now we have it in the schedule! So don't miss it! :)

SWIMMING

Tomorrow from 14.00-17.00 you can dive even deeper into Cadansa... You can swim in the swimming pool upstairs! 20 minutes of swimming fun costs only 1 token. We discovered that you can also dance in the swimming pool... who want to come with instrument and see how people dance in the water?

"Mag ik je poken met mijn instrument?" -Lucas K.
