PHOTOS

CaDansa is about making good memories together. A great way to look back at those memories are photos. We have some special photo things at CaDansa, did you use them to make photo's already?

- Somewhere a glittery analogue camera lays hidden.. When you find it you can make a photo and put it somewhere else. We are really curious for the photo's we find on it afterwards!
- Did you use the Photo Booth already? You can take photos with all your favourite CaDansa mascottes! Do press the red button! You find the photos at orkfotografie.nl/cadansa2017

QUOTES

- There seems to be something about butts.. This was in de Cadaily bag: "Everybody wants to look at Tessa's butt, 'cause that butt's the only butt who knows where it's at!" - serenade to Tessa's butt... and yeah, this picture we found in de e-mail...
- Someone to Nori: "your hair smells like Barbapapa" Nori wondering: 'but is it an airplane, a car or a tree with eyes?'

RUMOURS

- In the school the floor wasn't dry yet for the Saving Energy workshop... so there was a pre-saving energy workshop!
- Watch out with the Poitou... in the workshop Lucas taught a "Branle de l'épine" In this dance it is all about who can manage to dance the longest. There is even a punishment for the person that gives up first... lyrics in English: The first one to stop la la la, will be swung from arms and legs... (French: Le premier qu'arretra la la la, a tra era)
- Seeds are planted at this edition of CaDansa
- People dancing on the bar, crawling under someone's legs (Roelof was stuck between some legs...) Bingo creates funny situations! How many cards can you fill? Miranda filled one in one hour just being at the bar...
- We heard about a new cocktail.. it is called 'Outer Spice' ... the name says it all!
- Still wondering who photobombed the crew photo since Thursday?
- Mermaids spotted in the Swimming Pool!
