Balfolk Festival

OTTOBER 2018

DAILY

24 OCTOBER

We are utterly excited that CaDansa will begin today, at this beautiful new festival venue. The deco team is sweating like an otter (hint for the fun activity book!) to make this a real CaDansa home in Indian summer camping style. In the CaDaily we will bring the latest practical news to you, rumours and fun articles every day.

ATM DISAPPEARED

Earlier this year we went to Steenwijk to find all the important locations. One of the important places is an ATM to get money for all the CD's you want to buy, or when you are not able to pay by card at the cash register. Sadly the ATM at the map in the fun activity book is gone. At the info stand we can give directions to another one, a bit further away. You can also withdraw money in the supermarket during opening ours.

RUMOURS

- Fulco was missing the chaos and thought it went all too suspiciously smooth and was too quiet in HQ... luckily Eva managed to mess up printing a workshop sign.
- HQ is in a (spacious) pottery- and painting workshop, so creativity will spark this CaDansa!
- Rumour has that we will be in the gym all weekend... but don't worry, we will not be lifting weights, but dancing!
- Vacuum cleaning an improvised carpet isn't that easy, so it turned out... it requires acrobatic skills, doing the split while vacuum cleaning.
- Rumour has swimming skills are required to go into the photo booth...

Of course there are also many workshops for which you don't have to register. So last minute workshops are always possible. Just make sure you are there in time and join!

WE WANT YOU!

The CaDansa team is looking for someone to join the organising team. They want to have regular meetings in real life so the text is in Dutch:

Lieve CaDansianen,

We hebben ook met het organisatieteam van CaDansa gedurende het hele jaar veel lol gehad. Samen vergaderen met veel chocolade, flauwe woordgrappen en spijkers met koppen slaan.

Voor het komende jaar zijn we op zoek naar iemand die ons team komt versterken. Heb jij zin om het hele jaar door toe te leven naar CaDansa? Ben jij een echt organisatietalent, netwerk-held(in), schrijfwonder of heb je andere vaardigheden die we vast goed kunnen gebruiken? Zie je het zitten om eens in de 3 weken, bij voorkeur ergens in het midden van het land, te vergaderen? Stuur dan een mailtje naar info@cadansa.nl waarin je jezelf kort even voorstelt. We nemen dan contact met je op voor meer informatie en kennismaking.

Groetjes van het team,
Selena, Wouko, Elsbeth, Lennaert, Berber, Cecilia en Eva
