

CaDansa

Balfolk Festival

OTTOBER 2019

DAILY

25 OCTOBER

For those who were already here yesterday, welcome back. And for those who arrived today, welcome to the new festival venue. Some otters are pondering around, we have some playful otters at the game area and some look more like busy beavers, going from workshop to workshop. We hope you are all having fun!

COLOURING CONTEST

Participate in the colouring contest and win a ticket for CaDansa 2020! Old, young, big, small, everyone can join in. Get a copy at the info desk or in the gaming area and start colouring!

Put your name + email address at the backside and hand it in at the info desk before noon at Sunday. We'll announce the winner at Sunday afternoon.

RUMOURS

- We heard some people had to choose between Spiel and CaDansa. Luckily at CaDansa you can dance AND play boardgames at the game area upstairs! And some (Tom!) just go to Spiel AND CaDansa...
- Some people from Groningen are really glad CaDansa is near the Dutch waterways since they live in a boat! It took three days to get here, but it was a nice trip; now they 'live' within walking distance of CaDansa.
- Apparently CaDansa is also within biking distance of Belgium, for some visitors.
- The Dutch music group 'De Dijk', sings in one of their songs 'musicians don't dance' - they clearly lied!
- We appreciate that some people in the men's bathroom want to expand the habitat of the otter, but please don't do that at CaDansa by leaving the tap open.
- The volunteers at the silent disco are really resourceful... when it's broken, fix it!

INPUT FOR THE CADAILY

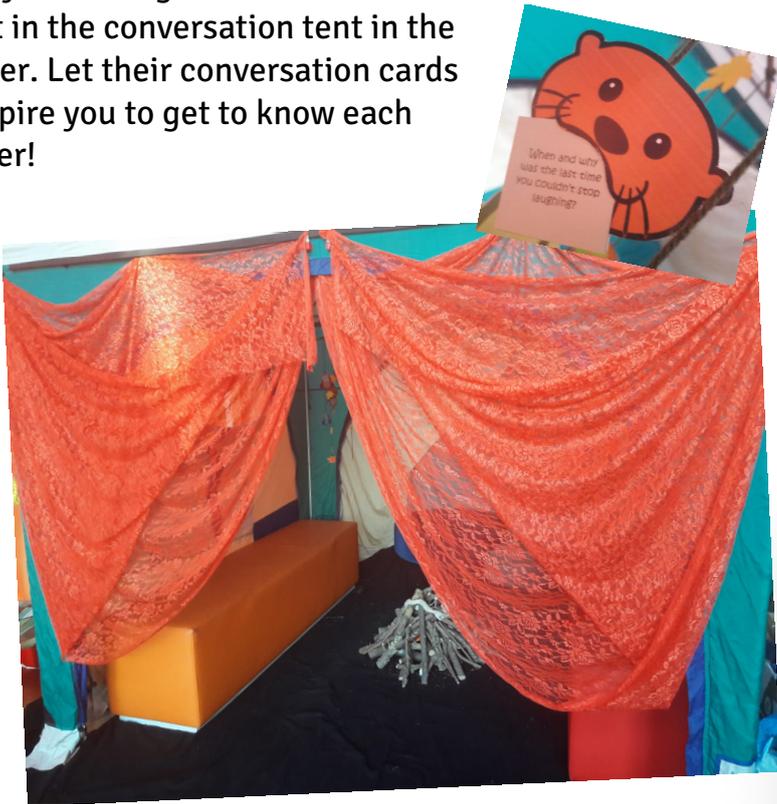

Do you have something fun for the CaDaily? A rumour, a (photo of a) CaDoodle, a funny photo? Send it to cadaily@cadansa.nl

Or bring it to the info desk on paper. Maybe you see it in the CaDaily the next day!

CONVERSATION TENT

Did you ever hear otters chattering? What would they be talking about? You can find out in the conversation tent in the foyer. Let their conversation cards inspire you to get to know each otter!

DIY MARKET

We have many creative people at CaDansa. We saw some drawings made by ekmeF at Instagram: they were thinking about selling them, if they can say goodbye to them...

Do you want to maybe theirs and other creative people's work? Come to the 'Do It Yourself' (DIY) market on Saturday between 15.00-17.30. Do you have creative skills like drawing, crafts, face paint, etc., come find a spot on the market. You find the DIY market in foyer downstairs.

PHOTO BOOTH

The Photo Booth will open this evening! Find it under the stairs. Push the red button to make your photo. Just don't dive into the pond, it's shallow!

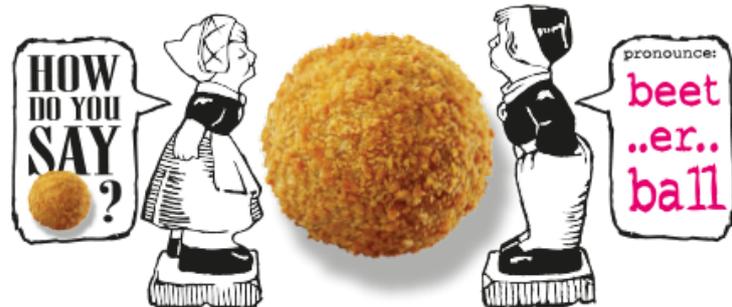

OPEN STAGE PROGRAM

Don't forget to take a peek at the open stage. This is the program for tonight:

- 17.30-18.30 Silent disco: [open] vs [open] vs DJ Herman
- 19.00-20.00 Introduction to Balfolk (workshop)
- 20.30-21.30 Andoorn
- 22.00-23.00 Wim te Groen
- 23.30-00.15 Tore Rudberg & Blanche Marguerite
- 00.15-02.00 Silent disco: DJ Ilya vs DJ Arjen vs DJ Justin Ken

BIETERBALLEN

There is this Dutch snack, called 'bitterballen'. It's basically fried scraps of meat, like your grandmother makes. But at De Meenthe there's a vegetarian version with beetroot filling as a late night snack. Get them at the bar after 22.00.

FUN ACTIVITY BOOK

Psst... Did you see people with this fun activity book? Have a look at the cash register/merch to see whether there is one left for you. You can get it for free!
