

THE CaDaily

2026 FRIDAY EDITION

FOR THE LATEST NEWS, FUN STORIES AND VARIOUS RUMORS FROM

CaDansa
Balfolk Festival

Welcome on your first morning here on the dancefloor of CaDansa 2026! Today's a full day of workshops and stretching newly developed muscles. Are you here for a special band or do you just want to dance along to every groove?

Make a plan or just go out, put on your dancing shoes and try your newly learned dance moves. We're happy that you're here and we're gonna throw a PARTY the whole day long!

PSSST, HAVE YOU HEARD...

- One of our volunteers got locked up in the shower trailer. So if you see Alwin around, give him a hug!
- While everyone is busy dancing, a whole different kind of adventure is unfolding on stage. The roof is leaking, and the ever-growing lake is being carefully mapped out with tape. So far, it's claiming the exact spots where the drums or violinists would normally be.
- Some bands play here for the first time together in years!
- Thanks to the clothes swap, somebody found their new winter wardrobe already
- This year's t-shirt design is a hit! The size M straight were sold out in 2 or 3 hours!

MASCOT MEETUP 18:00 - 18:15

Bring all your fluffy or funky creatures to the stage to bond over our alter-egos, loveable stuffies, mascots and heroes. Cuddle up and meet up, and maybe your closet best friend will bring you a new best friend?

MEET THE MASCOT

I'm Dino and I'm a long-time, diehard CaDansian!

My CaDansa quote:
When in doubt, go cuddle

CAT-DANSA MYSTERY REVEALED!

Most people were already aware that there are a lot of cats — in some cases, they even overestimated the number! — but we humans still hold the upper hand.

With 12 cats being served by the people from HQ, we should assume the cats are in control. Luckily they seem to love balfolk as much as we do!

MY STORY

I'm a quite well-known dinosaur, if I may say so, I have fans. Back in the days people started to shout my name when I entered the dance floor and then I started flying everywhere (although my friends call it 'falling with style') to be dragged around. Now my wild days are a bit over and I'm chillin' around on this year's CaDansa. Although I do hope that someone will offer to dance the Gavotte de la Dino with me.

FIRST TIMER OR VETERAN?

Tomorrow we'll be hearing about CaDansa's future. Which makes us look back a little as well.

Wondering: How often have you been to CaDansa?

1. First time!
2. 2 - 6 times!
3. 7 - 12 times!
- 5.- All 13 times!

You can answer on the poster wall, or the stories on Instagram and Facebook. Stay tuned for the answer tomorrow!

IMPORTANT SAFETY NOTE

Only take the essentials to the dancefloor to place in the designated bag areas.

Please place large bags and coats in the cloakrooms; there are 2 to the right of mainstage. The cloakroom nearest to the stage is usually quite empty if 1 is full.

If bags are placed outside of the bag area the stewards will place your stuff in one of the cloakrooms when the bag area is full.

Please help us keep the paths clear.

WHERE ARE YOU HEADING FIRST WHEN YOU ARRIVE AT THE FESTIVAL?

The clothes swap to hunt for new treasures, the board game area, the bar for some delicious ginger syrup, straight to the dancefloor, or checking out what's happening on the open stage?

Or somewhere completely different?

Tell us your first stop at the poster wall, or via our stories on Instagram & Facebook!

MAGIC AT WORK!

Did you see how part of the Meenthe changed in a birch tree forest?! They're suddenly growing everywhere, looking beautiful.

The deco team worked their magic once again ♥

CARE TO SHARE?

Have you seen our shiny new CaDaily mail boxes? Here you can share your festival adventures, lovely stories, quotes, (workshop) lessons learned and more. And all the interesting rumours, fresh from the floor!

You can find them near the bar and upstairs lounge area. Or get in touch at cadaily@cadansa.nl or social media. And maybe you'll see it in the next CaDaily!
