Hello dearest CaDansians!

Once again the final day of CaDansa has arrived. However, before it's time to go home, we still have quite some dancing to do! Hugs to share! Memories to make! Let's make it another amazing day and let's end this edition the way only CaDansa can! With joy, love, fun (and maybe a few tears at the end).

See you at the closing ceremony?

LAST MINUTE DISCOVERY

We only learned of this yesterday: apparently there's a bunch of cute little deer at walking distance from the venue!

CONTEXT IS STILL MISSING

- Maybe your bed sleeps with you?
- Instrument storage must be using a table of holding
- The Gonnagles effect = everyone taking off their clothes
- Energy drinking cult spotted in the parking lot
- Mouth to mouth mazurka?
- Did you see the deer and a tree hanging out together?

CADANSA IN ONE WORD:

calming friendship forest safe
cute fantastic warm lovely magical friends
friends (really) fun lovely squirrel first, fun
crucible inspiring
home happy

GONNAGLES ARE BACK!

After their amazing performance on Saturday, one of our CaDaily reporters did a little interview! We'll share more of it on our social media later, for now, a little preview:

Gonnagles started making music together as students. But then life happened! Work, children and new paths led to a 12-year break. Now they're finally back!

For the band, playing for dancers is something truly special. The energy of the dance floor, the connection with the audience and the way people respond to their music make every performance a unique experience.

MEET THE MASCOT

Every day a tiny interview with a special visitor!

Hi Guys. I am Bubble! I'm at my best when I'm chilling at the couch at the main stage, best overview over there!

So I went to quite some balfolk events although I'm not really a dancer, funny huh? I absolutely love to watch all the CaDansians from the stage or the couch. Best spot, because at other festivals I sometimes stay in the bag. I do maybe want to start dancing one day, but I must say that I'm a bit shy. And the other mascot seem to be shy as well. I want to dance the most with the raven, but they always fly away...

THE FUTURE OF CADANSA – IT'S IN OUR HANDS!

Yesterday was an emotional moment for the Cadansa community. After years of dedication, the main organising team announced that they will be stepping down. They asked the audience an important question: Who can imagine taking over the organisation of Cadansa?

Cadansa is so much more than just a festival. It's a place where people come together, friendships grow, and unforgettable memories are made. And we all hope that this special place will continue to exist.

So maybe this is your moment to get involved! Could you imagine becoming part of a new organising team and helping to shape the future of Cadansa? Every new beginning starts with people willing to take the first step. And most importantly, a huge THANK YOU to the current organising team! For all the time, energy, love and hard work you've put into making Cadansa what it is today. You've created something truly special.

Let's keep the spirit of Cadansa alive!

WORK WORK WORKSHOP

After 2 days of workshops, we've all learned a lot and had a lot of fun! Which shows in the CaDaily mailbox:

- "The joy (and chaos!) of everyone trying bagpipes & the hurdy gurdy for the first time"
- "The audience got really involved in Sophie's workshop. That was really unexpected for her when she turned around for the first time!"
- "The dips & lift workshop was very popular and well visited. We need more of those!"
- "During the organisers workshop we learned that we are starting to dream bigger."
- "This is a 'make it work-shop'"
- "Big thank you for everyone attending the introduction to balfolk workshops. You were really good! Keep dancing."

TO DANCE OR TO... DANCE?

We stay curious until the very end, and we've seen so many different ways you can dance! We want to know, what is your favorite style of dancing?

1. Playful
2. Intimate
3. Energetic
4. Exploring

Head to the offline poll board, or to our stories on Instagram and Facebook, for one final dancing vote.

LAST CHANCE!

The after-CaDansa CaDaily will return! Not the next day, but keep an eye out for it on the website or social media. If you have any final thoughts or fun things you want to share, you still can do so today!

The mailboxes are still in position near the bar and upstairs lounge area. Or find us at cadaily@cadansa.nl or social media.

And thank you all for your wonderful input! If sharing is caring, you cared like the very best!

SAHNT...

Please, nobody mention pineapple on pizza or there might not be any Italians to dance with next CaDansa...
